Do Dham Yatra — Kedarnath & Badrinath

6 Days · Starting from ₹17,500 per person · Departs: Haridwar

- ✓ The two most-visited Dhams in one week — Kedarnath Jyotirlinga and Badri Vishal
- ✓ Mana, India's first village, and the Tapt Kund hot springs at Badrinath
- ✓ Sensible night halts — darshan days are never also long driving days
- ✓ The classic 16 km Gaurikund-Kedarnath trail with pony / palki / helicopter options
- ✓ Char Dham registration for both shrines handled by our team

You'll be talking to Himanshu, the founder — not a call centre.

For most families the Do Dham — Kedarnath and Badrinath together — is the yatra: the Jyotirlinga and the Vishnu Dham in a single week, without the twelve days the full Char Dham circuit demands.

Our 6-day itinerary keeps the golden rule of mountain yatra: a darshan day is never also a long driving day. The Kedarnath trek gets a full day each way, and Badrinath gets an unhurried evening and morning. Char Dham registration is mandatory for both shrines — our team completes it for you before you travel.

We are a private tour operator based in Pithoragarh, run by Uttarakhand locals — these valleys are the roads we drive all season, every season.

Day-wise itinerary

1 Haridwar → Guptkashi

1,319 m

Drive up the Ganga and Mandakini valleys through Devprayag and Rudraprayag to Guptkashi. Evening yatra briefing and registration check. Overnight stay.

2 Gaurikund → Kedarnath trek (16 km)

3,583 m

Early transfer to Sonprayag and Gaurikund, then the trail to Kedarnath alongside the Mandakini — on foot, pony, or palki. Evening aarti at the Jyotirlinga. Overnight near the temple (or helicopter return, on request).

3 Kedarnath darshan → descend → Guptkashi

1,319 m

Pre-dawn darshan and the Bhairavnath viewpoint before trekking back to Gaurikund. Transfer to Guptkashi. Overnight stay.

4 Guptkashi → Badrinath

3,133 m

Drive via Chopta's meadows and Joshimath to Badrinath. Evening darshan at Badri Vishal and a dip at the Tapt Kund hot springs. Overnight stay.

5 Badrinath → Mana village → Rudraprayag

610 m

Morning darshan, then Mana village — Vyas Gufa and the Saraswati source — before descending the Alaknanda to Rudraprayag. Overnight stay.

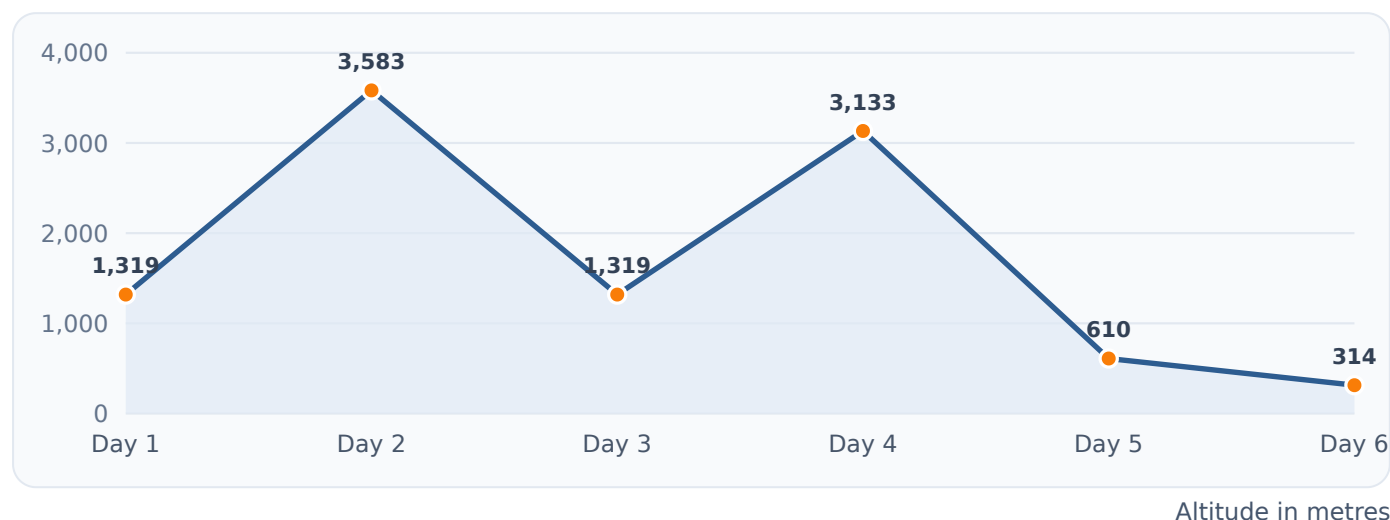

6 Rudraprayag → Haridwar — yatra concludes

314 m

The final leg past Devprayag, where the Alaknanda and Bhagirathi meet to become the Ganga. Reach Haridwar by afternoon. Jai Badri Vishal, Jai Kedar.
